

Verse 1

Can you sing like no-one's listening? (la la la la)
Can you dance like no-one's watching? (watch this!)
Can you give like no-one's counting? (high fives)
Can you laugh like no-one's judging? (ha ha ha)

Chorus

Because there's no such as normal around here
Everyone's a little bit and a little bit
You know there's no such as normal around here
You have to be a little be to be a little bit

Verse 2

If you want to be a superhero
(You have to wear your pants on the outside)
And to be a hollywood Rockstar
(You've gotta have nothing to hide)
If there's a lightning storm in your way
(You need an electric umbrella)
You can wear yellow and black everyday
(well, it's good enough for Batman!)

Chorus

Because there's no such as normal around here
Everyone's a little bit and a little bit
You know there's no such as normal around here
You have to be a little be to be a little bit

Bridge

Don't you want to know my name?
You think we're not the same
But everyone's the same
You should have a dance in my shoes
I'm sure you will agree you should be more like me!

Verse 3

If you meet me where I am
(We will me you where you are)
You'll see there's nothing to be scared of (or is there???)

Chorus

Because there's no such as normal around here
Everyone's a little bit and a little bit
You know there's no such as normal around here
You have to be a little be to be a little bit
